

2005 Elimination of PST on legal services

Legal fees were recognized as one of the few services that were subject to PST. Initially the plan was to direct these funds to support of the legal system. However, through various governments, the funds were redirected to general revenue. We proposed to eliminate the tax on legal fees or alternatively restore the receipt of tax dollars to the legal system.